

At a sitting of the Yearly Meeting of Friends held in Baltimore for the Western shore of Maryland and the adjacent parts of Pennsylvania and Virginia on the 30th of the 10th mo 1828.

Hugh Balderson was appointed to serve this meeting as clerk and William Proctor as assistant clerk.

The peculiar and tried circumstances in which this meeting is placed being brought under consideration, it was concluded to appoint a joint committee of men and women friends to prepare, and report to a future sitting of the meeting a minute containing a suitable exposition of our present situation, and the causes producing the same, and the following friends were accordingly appointed to the service. viz. Bernard Hopkins, Thomas Worthington, Hugh
