

At Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Ministers and Elders, held the 17th of the 10th mo. 1829.

Gerard T. Hopkins was appointed to serve the Meeting as Clerk.

By the reports now produced, it appears, that the following friends were appointed representatives to attend this Meeting, who were present, (to wit,) From Baltimore Quarter Gerard T. Hopkins, Hough Balderson, Dorothy Hopkins and Elizabeth Scott. From Nottingham Quarter Thomas Maring, John Himes and Rebekah Maring.

The queries were read and answers received from two of our quarterly Meetings, namely, Baltimore and Nottingham, from which the following summary was collected.

1. Ministers and Elders are diligent in the attendance of Meetings for worship and discipline, and concern to encourage their families to that religious duty.
2. Ministers, in the exercise of their gifts, appear careful to wait for divine ability.
3. Ministers and Elders, who attend our meetings, are in unity one with another, and with the Meetings to which they belong, and concern for the advancement of Truth, and the support of our discipline.
