adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock to morrow morning

2nd of the 1st mo and 4th of the week according to adjournment friends convened

The Committee appointed last year to unite with others from the several yearly meetings on this continent, in the capacity of a general committee, to take into consideration the common interest of Society at large, produced the following report, and accompanying address, which were read and after deliberating thereon, the meeting acceded to the proposition, and continued the committee with the addition of ^{Ann Waterhouse} Sarah Sands Anna Proctor and Hannah Tallott, to act in conjunction with men friends in the concern -

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

A part of the committee of conference, attended at Philadelphia, in the 7th moth last according to appointment, and met committees from several of the yearly meetings, but as one of the Yearly Meetings had left the subject over for consideration to another year, and another had made no appointment, way did not open for them to take up any subject, further than to enter into some general views, and to draw up an address to
