Baltimore 11. moth 1st 1831

The Committee appointed to adjust the Treas-urer's account, reported a balance of $54 6^{cts} in the hands of the Treasurer, including the Dues of the present year.

adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon Near the time appointed friends assembled Sarah Savage and Hannah Ann Tyson were appointed to assist the Clerk in correcting and transcribing the minutes of the present year.

The Committee appointed produced an essay of an endorsement to be placed on the min-utes of friends, which was approved and di-rected to be signed by the Clerk on behalf of the meeting.

The following minute containing some of the exercises of the meeting was read ap-proved and directed to be sent to our Quar-terly meetings.

Upon a review of the state of society, a lively exercise was felt to prevail, under which renewed ability was furnished to administer in the love of the Gospel, much weighty admonition and counsel suited to the various climes and states amongst us.
An earnest solicitude was experienced, that those who stand in the responsible station of Mothers, might dwell near the spring of Divine life in themselves, whereby they can alone become qualified to give a right bias to ^{the} affections of their tender offspring; to instill into their minds religious truths, and invite them by the persuasive lan-guage of example, to follow the footsteps of the flock of Christ.

The beloved youth were affectionately exhorted to come under the regulating power of the cross, to lay aside their outward ornaments and put on the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, thus would the arms of their hands
