acceptable. 6th Isaac Sims & Rachel Hough were appointed to unite with men Friends in preparing a suitable essay of endorsement to be placed on them

The friends appointed to correct and transcribe the minutes of the Yearly Meeting report the service performed.

The clerk informed the meeting that the epistles and minutes had been handed down as directed.

Rachel Hough and Ann Waterhouse were appointed to settle and adjust the Treasurers acct and report to a future sitting.

Then adjourned to 10 Oclock tomorrow morning.

30th of the month and 3d of the week pursuant to adjournment the meeting gathered.

The meeting engaged in the consideration of the state of society and having proceeded through the Queries and Answers as brought up from our Quarterly Meetings the following summaries were adopted.

First Answer.

All our Meetings for worship and discipline have been duly attended by most of our members in unity with us, unbecoming behaviour therein avoided and the hour nearly observed.

Second Answer.

Love and unity appear to be maintained becoming our christian profession; Tale-bearing and detraction discouraged and no apparent differences amongst us.

Third Answer.

Some friends are concerned to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel, to guard them from reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures.

Fourth Answer.

As far as appears friends are generally clear of any breach of the forepart of this query, and a good degree of moderation and temperance observed.

Fifth Answer.

The necessities of the poor are inspected and relief afforded, no children requiring the aid of friends in their school education.

Sixth Answer.

As far as appears friends are concerned to support our testimony in the several particulars of this query.

Seventh Answer.

Friends are generally careful to live within
