

That so they may experience a qualification to fulfill the obligations of duty relative to them and to the Church, when this becomes ~~our~~ individual concern we shall be engaged to maintain those principles and testimonies, those views and practices by which we were distinguished as a Religious Society then shall we see the Church coming up out of the wilderness - Fair as the Moon clear as the Sun and terrible as an Army with banners

First Summary

All our Meetings for worship and discipline have been held and duly attended by most of our Members on First day Mornings - other Meetings sometimes small, unbecoming behaviour therein avoided and the hour nearly observed

Second Summary

As far as appears Friends maintain Love towards each other becoming our Christian profession, talebearing and detraction discouraged no apparent differences amongst us

Third Summary

Many Friends endeavour by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech deportment and apparel to guard them from reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world, yet deficiencies are noticed respecting the former part of this Query

Fourth Summary

Our testimony against Spirituosity appears to be maintained by Friends - and they are generally careful to comply with the latter part of this Query

Fifth Summary

The necessities of the Poor are inspected and measurably relieved, no aid required in the education of Friends children

Sixth Summary

Many Friends maintain a faithful testimony against an hireling Ministry - No breach of the latter part of this appears
