The following report from the committee of

Men and Women Friends appointed on the subject of Schools was read and fully united with and earnest solicitude was felt that we might individually dwell under the weight of this very important and interesting concern

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

The Committee appointed to write with Women Friends on the consideration of the important and interesting subject of the religious and guarded education of our Youth having several times met and deliberately considered the subject in connection with the concern and exercise which has been manifested by the Meeting in reference to it, and after a free expression of sentiment thereon we have been favoured to unite in judgement that it will be right (and perhaps the safest step the Yearly Meeting can take at the present time) unreservedly to recommend Quarterly and Monthly Meetings to endeavour to get under the weight of this truly important subject and to pay particular and careful
