

attention. We consider it virtually answered in the foregoing part of this Report, so far as we think it competent for us to answer. No such arrangement has appeared to us to be necessary; but that the whole subject of mutual counsel and interchange of sentiment and feeling between the several Yearly Meetings be left with those bodies, for them to move in as the consideration of particular subjects may demand and the Wisdom of Truth dictate.

Signed on behalf of a Meeting of Commissioners of the Yearly Meetings ^{aforsaid} held at Baltimore, on the First, Second, Third and Fourth of the Seventh Month, 1833 by

Thomas Howland

Samuel Parsons

Hugh Balderson

Thomas Ladd

Nathan Meadenshall

Benjamin Wright

William Hobbs

Anne Nott

Dorothy Hopkins

Rebecca T. Updegraff

Margaret Morris

An Epistle addressed to Philadelphia Yearly Meeting was read approved and directed to be signed the clerk was directed to forward to our Quarterly Meetings copies of the Epistles received from the Yearly Meetings corresponding with us

Representatives being called were present as at the first sitting

We desire to offer the tribute of thanksgiving and praise, for the Mercies and Favors received at this time, and conclude to meet again at the same time next Year if so permitted