

committees of the Quarterly Meetings in advising and assisting the meetings and members within the Yearly Meeting, report, That in the 11th month last, part of our number attended Nottingham Quarter, on a proposition from friends of Bellefonte and Clearfield, for the establishment of a Preparative and Monthly meeting at Bellefonte, the former to be known and distinguished by the name of Bellefonte Preparative meeting, and the latter by the name of Centre Monthly meeting, held at Bellefonte. Both of these meetings have been subsequently established, and have under their care all the members belonging to the late Centre Monthly meeting. The committee have no prospect of any further service at present under their appointment.

Signed on behalf of the committee,

Hugh Calderston
George Williamson

10th month 28th 1834

The friends appointed to inspect the Treasurer's account, reported a balance in his hands of 99 dollars 63 cents, the quotas of the present year having been paid in.

Epistles addressed to London, Rhode Island, and Ohio Yearly meetings were read, approved, and directed to be signed on behalf of this meeting.

The committee appointed to attend Virginia Yearly meeting produced the following report with an accompanying minute from that meeting, which were read to satisfaction, and they released, yet an affectionate solicitude was felt that friends would still extend towards them their sisterly regard and sympathy.

In the Yearly Meeting now sitting:

The committee appointed to attend Virginia Yearly meeting report, that several of their number attended the late Yearly meeting held at Somerton, on the borders of North Carolina: In noticing the attendance of committees from Baltimore and North Carolina, an appointment of men and women friends was gone into, to confer with them on the interesting and important object of their appointment; they had also the company of strangers
