

Then adjourned to three o'clock Agreeably to adjournment the meeting gathered.

One of the representatives reported that they had agreed to propose the reappointment of Hannah Talbot as Clerk and Cassandra Worthington as assistant Clerk which was approved by the meeting.

Minutes for several Brethren and Sisters from other Yearly Meetings were read. The company and religious labours of these our beloved friends had condescended to remember this part of the heritage, Hannah Hobbs and Elizabeth Scott were appointed to visit with men in preparing a suitable essay of intercession and prayer to a future sitting. The London general epistle was read to satisfaction.

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow engaged the attention of friends and having proceeded through them, the following summary answers were collected: during the sitting thus oc-were clothed with lamentation on account of the low state of Society and alone can qualify to rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep there was a lively expression of concern for the more faithful ^{discharge} of all our religious duties, amongst the first of which we believe to be an obedience to the injunction, "Neglect not the assembling of yourselves together" as we are rightly engaged in the performance of this duty, we shall know an increase of spiritual strength and become clothed with the true badge of discipleship and in that love which
