

Casteth out all fear, we shall be enabled faithfully to maintain all the Christian testimonies given us to bear

1st Summary.

All our meetings (except one noted in the report from Sun powder) have been held and generally well attended on first day mornings, yet a ^{remissness} in the attendance of afternoon and week day meetings is apparent - no unbecoming behaviour to remarks and the hour nearly observed.

2nd Summary

Love appears to be generally maintained becoming our Christian profession; tale bearing and detraction discouraged & we know of no differences amongst us.

3rd Summary

Some friends are concerned to educate their children and those under their care in plainness of speech deportment and apparel, to guard against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world and to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures, yet deficiencies are acknowledged in some of these important particulars.

4th Summary

Friends generally maintain a testimony against the unnecessary use of distilled ~~spirits~~ liquors and are mostly careful to comply with the latter part of this query.

5th Summary

Friends appear careful to inspect the necessities of the poor and to assist those who may be likely to require aid agreeably to this query.

6th Summary

Friends generally appear careful in those respects.

7th Summary

Most friends are concerned to live within the bounds of their circumstances & to ^{avoid} involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage, no deficiencies apparent in the latter part of this query.

8th Summary

Our testimony against Slavery appears to be maintained. Those of the African Race under the care of friends are suitably provided for and endeavours are used to instruct them in useful learning.
