

coming behaviour to remark and the how nearly observed

2^d ant

Love appears to be generally main-tained becoming our Christian profession. All bearing and detraction discouraged and we know of no differences amongst us

3^d ant

Some friends are concerned to educate their children & those under their care in plainness of speech deportments appear to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world and to encourage the frequent reading of the Holy scriptures. yet deficiencies are acknowledged in some of those important particulars 4th ant-

Friends appear careful to maintain a testimony against the unnecessary use of distilled spiritous liquors and are mostly careful to comply with the latter part of this Query.

5th ant

Friends are careful to inspect the necessities of the poor & to assist those who may be likely to require aid

6th ant

Friends generally appear careful in those respects.

7th ant.

Most friends are concerned to live within the bounds of their circumstance and not ^{assist} involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage. no deficiencies appear in the latter part of this Query.

8th ant.

The testimony against Slavery appears to be maintained. Those of the African race under the care of friends are suitably provided for & endeavours are used to instruct them in useful learning

9th ant

Friends have endeavoured to deal with offenders as ability has been afforded.

10th ant none

11th ant none

12th ant as far as practicable