The following communication from London Meeting for Sufferings, held 15th of 1^{mo} 1847, relative to the famine now prevailing in Ireland was received & read. But as this Meeting is now informed that very liberal subscriptions in money and provisions have been already contributed by our members generally it is not deemed necessary to take any further steps in the premises: Our Correspondents are directed to furnish them with a copy of the Minutes through their Correspondents.

"At a Meeting for Sufferings held in London by adjournment the 15th of 1^{mo} 1847

This Meeting having been informed that in consequence of the famine and distress now spreading in Ireland a Committee of Friends in London has been appointed to attend to the raising and appropriation of funds, very liberally subscribed by Friends in Great Britain and that they are acting in cordial cooperation with a similar Committee of Friends in Dublin. And also that the Committee in London have written to Friends in America and invited their taking part in the benevolent effort on behalf of the sufferers.
The subject is one which deeply interests our feelings
