

Since our last Report dated ¹⁹⁶ 10th mo 20th 1849 we have made but few sales of Friends books so far as has come to the knowledge of the Committee in Baltimore.

We have a sufficient supply of Barclay's Catechism on hand at this time. - Jewell's History & George Fox's Journal being nearly all sold, we think it would be well to order more of them. - We also suggest the propriety of adding the following standard works of Friends to the present list viz

Penn's Rise & progress of the people called Quakers & Key

" No Cross No Crown

Life of John Woolman

Barclay's Catechism

Which we submit to the Meeting

The committee to procure & circulate certain standard works of Friends reported that they had now on hand the four ad-¹⁹⁷ works mentioned in their last report & had made some progress in the sale & circulation of them; they are all left at liberty & encouraged to distribute our Book of Discipline among our members who are not already supplied with it -

They are continued to report to our next meeting

A Minute was received from our late Yearly Meeting, referring to our notice a Memorial from the Meeting
