

& Francis J. King, James C. Thomas, & Thos R. Matthews are appointed to carefully examine & revise it & produce it to our next meeting.

Then adjourned to the stated time in the 10th month next.
John Scott Clark

At a Meeting for Sufferings held in Baltimore the 19th of 10th Month 1861. Present 17 Members.

The Committee appointed to examine the Book of Discipline made the following report which was united with & our clerk directed to furnish the Yearly Meeting with the conclusion of this Meeting to the Meeting for Sufferings.

The undersigned to whom was referred the examination of the Book of Discipline, as to whether a revision of it is called for, report that upon a careful consideration of the Subject we are united in Judgment that some revision is desirable, but that in view of the absence of so many of our Members on account of the civil war we do not think the present is a suitable time to enter upon the work.

Baltimore
10th Mo 18th 1861

on behalf of the Committee

John Scott

Francis J. King

The Committee appointed to Examine and revise the Memorial of our late beloved friend

Thos R. Balderson produced it which was carefully read in this Meeting, and fully & feelingly adopted and our clerk is directed to transmit it to the Yearly Meeting with a copy of this Minute.

Then adjourn to meet at the stated time in Tenth Month next.

John Scott Clark

At a Meeting for Sufferings held in Balto the 16th of 12 mo 1861, present 12 members.

A minute was read & read from our late Yearly Mtg enclosing one from London Yearly Mtg on the subject of the Slave trade. Circumstances however have transpired since the date of their minute which make it inadvisable to reprint the Appeal as they request. The papers were directed to be filed with our books & papers.

Then adjourned to meet at the usual time in the Third Month next.

John Scott Clark

At a Meeting for Sufferings held in Baltimore the 17th of 3rd Month 1862. Present 12 Members.

The following Memorial of London Mtg for Sufferings to the British Government was received by the