

revision of the book of Discipline was continued.

A minute was received from Duncunings Creek Quarterly Meeting, informing us that they had appointed Jacob D. Valentine to fill the vacancy in that Meeting's representation in this session by the death of William McNaul.

His name was directed to be entered on our list of members. Then adjourned to the stated time in 10th month next.

Wm Carey Thomas. Clerk

At a Stated Meeting for Sufferings held in Baltimore 10th Mo 21. 1876. present 22 members. We have also the acceptable company of our friend Joseph B. Braithwaite of London and several brethren from other Yearly Meetings.

The Committee on Indian Affairs presented the Seventh Annual Report of the Associated Executive Committee. This Meeting recommends to the Yearly Meeting the payment of our usual contribution to the expenses of that Meeting.

The Committee on Education at the South reported that owing to the political character of the present House of Representatives no progress had been, or was likely to be made in securing legislation by Congress at present. The Committee was released, but we desire the subject may still continue to claim the close attention of Friends.

The Committee on the revision of the Book of Discipline presented the revised Book, the consideration of which was partly proceeded with.

This Meeting was informed that Virginia Wolfe's Yearly Meeting had appointed ^{in place of our friend Sumner at his death} Richard A. Risk, a member of this Meeting. His name was directed to be entered on the list of our members.

Then adjourned to 7 1/2 o'clock Second day Evening next.

At an adjourned Meeting for Sufferings held in Baltimore 18th Mo 23rd. 1876. The consideration of the remaining portions of the revised ^{Book of} Discipline, as presented by the Committee was concluded - and the Clerk was directed to offer it to the Yearly Meeting for its judgment.

Then concluded.

Wm Carey Thomas. Clerk

At a called Meeting for Sufferings held 10th Mo 26th. 1876 a quorum present. The following minute was received from the Yearly Meeting was read and Francis W. King, Wm. C. Thomas, John Nicholson and John C. Thomas were directed to have 1000 copies of the revised book of Discipline printed and 500 copies bound & call on the Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting for the expense incurred. &c. &c.