

in membership with us. the meeting continues the same friends to unite with men in preparing a testimony of disownment against her if they should find no cause to forbear and offer it to next meeting.

This meeting has been informed that Ruth Little has joined in the secession and is in connection with meetings not acknowledged by our yearly meeting. She has removed to reside within the limits of Burlington Monthly Meeting. Judith W. Williamson and Grace I. Hopkins were appointed to write to that meeting requesting its assistance in treating with her on the above charges and to inform us of the effect of their care.

The following communication from Hopewell Monthly Meeting was read, and after deliberately considering the subject, was accepted. the overseers were directed to visit and encourage her to come forward to the attendance of our religious meetings.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends in unity with the ancient yearly meetings of friends

A communication from your meeting was received dated 2nd Mo 1833 respecting Mary Ann Wall, who had associated herself with those who were in the attendance of meetings not acknowledged by our society, that she had since removed within the limits of ours, and requesting friends care towards her, a committee was accordingly appointed who visited her through which she informed the meeting of her entire disunity with those who had withdrawn from the ancient doctrines of the society, that her situation was a trying one being under the necessity residing in their families, that she seldom attended meetings, and never their meetings for Discipline. She has since we understand returned to the City of Washington and this meeting thought best to refer her case back to Baltimore Mo. M. G. Signed on behalf of the committee Sarah Sands.

Gunpowder Monthly Meeting requested the assistance of this meeting in treating with Harriet Williamson (late freed) for accomplishing her marriage contrary to the order established amongst friends. Ruth Smith and Parthenia Dukehart were appointed to attend to the case and report to next meeting.

Elizabeth Hows requested a certificate to Monthly Meeting New Lisbon, certificates were also requested for Esther Mary and Caroline Hows to the same Monthly Meeting. Hannah Talbot and Elizabeth Robertson were appointed to prepare them if no obstruction appears and offer them to next meeting.

a concern was laid before this meeting by men relative to an addition of friends to stand in the station of Elders, the consideration of which was referred to next meeting.

Our friend Hannah Hopkins returned the minute granted her last month