

We have visited Ann Whitaker, Elizabeth Hayward, Hannah Chaudly, Sarah Lafette and Lydia Lafette, neither of whom evinced any disposition to acknowledge their deviation, and we are of opinion that further labour would be unavailing, which we submit to the meeting.

We have not had an opportunity with Jane Lafette

The same friends were continued in Jane Lafette's case to report when ready.

This meeting has been informed that the minute of charges against Mary Husband has been forwarded to Deer Creek Monthly Meeting as directed.

The friends appointed to take in consideration the subject of Elders, reported that they had conferred together and were united in proposing Isaac Brooks and William Procter for that station, which was deliberately considered and the nomination approved by the meeting, and the committee continued to the further service of their appointment.

The friends appointed collected the sum of $2.75 cents which they have placed with the treasurer.

The following minute from the Quarterly meeting of Ministers was read. Ver.
