

Our Greek Monthly Meeting requested the assistance of this in treating with Rachel Cleaveland (late Harden) for having her Marriage accomplished contrary to the established order of our society. Parthenia Dukehart, Dorothy Brown, and Sarah Webster were appointed to the service and report to next meeting.

The ^{committee} continued on the subject of Elders, reported that on conferring together they agreed to propose Judith Williamson, which claiming the attention of the Meeting was fully united with, and the committee continued to further service.

Hannah Robitson, Anna Procter, Susanna Hopkins and Mary Martin, were appointed to collect for the Yearly meeting stock, and report to next meeting.

An Epistle from London Yearly meeting was read to satisfaction.

Then adjourned

All the Queries have been read and answers received from each of our preparative meetings, which being deliberately considered the following were adopted to be forwarded to the ensuing Quarterly Meeting, as our representatives we appoint Sarah Webster, Mary Ann Fowler, Elizabeth Hopkins, and Grace Hopkins by whom we send $15. 10 cents towards the Yearly Meeting Stock.

1st Answer All our meetings for worship and Discipline have been duly attended by most of our members on first day mornings, but a remissness in the attendance of after noon and week day meetings is apparent, no unbecoming behaviour to remark, and the hour of meeting nearly observed by friends.

2nd Answer Most friends appear to maintain love towards each other, also to discourage tale bearing and detraction: no apparent differences.

3rd Answer. Some friends are concerned by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care in the different branches of our Christian testimony, and to guard them against reading pernicious books and to encourage a more frequent perusal of the holy scriptures.

4th Answer No deficiency appears respecting the forepart of this query and friends are in a good degree careful to observe moderation and temperance.

5th Answer The necessities of the poor and the circumstances
