1st Ans^r. All our Meetings for worship and discipline have been held, those on first day mornings generally attended by most of our members, afternoon and week day meetings are often small, unbecoming behaviour guarded against, and the hour of meeting observed by most friends.

2nd Ans^r. We believe friends generally maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession and care is taken to discourage tale bearing, no diffences amongst us that have come to our knowledge.

3rd Ans^r. Some friends endeavour by example and precept to educate their children in plainness, to guard them against reading pernicious books and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and also to encourage the frequent reading the holy scriptures, yet more care in these particulars would be desirable.

4th Ans^r. Clear as respects the fore part of this query moderation and temperance generally observed.

of those who may appear likely to require aid have been inspected and relief afforded, we know of no children requiring the aid of friends in their school education.

6th Ans^r. Friends bear their testimony against healing ministry, and we know of no breach of discipline in the latter part of this query.

7th Ans^r. Friends appear to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage, just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements.
