

no disposition to condemn her deviation, and they were of opinion that further care would not be useful, with which the meeting united, and continued the same friends to join with men in preparing a testimony of disavowment against her if they should find no cause to forbear and offer it to next meeting.

Marlborough Monthly Meeting informed that Sarah Brooke and others have been furnished with their testimonies of disavowment and informed of their privilege to appeal.

Hannah

Talbot, Lucy King, Hannah Napier, and Hannah Ann Tyson were appointed to offer for the approbation of next meeting two friends to serve as clerks the ensuing year.

The following report from the committee of Indian Spring Preparative Meeting was read, and the propositions of the change united with.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting for the Eastern and Western Districts.

The Committee of Men and Women friends to the care of Indian Spring preparative Meeting on conferring together agree to report that a part of their number attended that meeting to satisfaction. It was held jointly Men and Women sitting together, and it was thought best in consequence of the small number of Men members that this practice should be continued, at least for the present, and believing that an advantage would be derived in a change in the time of holding it, they felt a freedom to suggest it for consideration, which was fully united with, and it was concluded to hold the Preparative meeting on future at 10 o'clock instead of it as heretofore, provided the Monthly Meeting concurs in the proposed change. Which is submitted to the meeting.

Signed on behalf of the committee

Wm. Fowler

Clara Giffell

As our representatives we appoint Hannah Talbot, Elizabeth Hopkins, Ruth Cobb, Hannah Ann Tyson and Rachel Pauliney to attend the ensuing Quarterly meeting.

Thomas Worthington and Grace Hopkins offered their proposals of marriage with each other for the approbation of friends. Dorothy Hopkins and Margaret Baldwin were appointed to make the necessary enquiry and report to next meeting.

Then concluded