

appeal.

The friends appointed to visit Mary Carpenter report that they paid her a visit and that she shewed no desire to be reconciled to friends; they therefore think that further labour would be unnecessary. The same friends are continued to join men friends in preparing a testimony of disownment against her, and to inform her of her right to appeal.

The friends appointed to prepare a testimony of disownment against Ann P Robinson not being in readiness to report are continued.

The Friends appointed to visit Maryant Joliffe report that they have had a satisfactory interview with her, and encourage her to make an acknowledgment to the Meeting. The following offering was made and accepted and left in mens meeting for further consideration. It is as follows.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends

Having had my marriage accomplished contrary to the advice of the members of the Yearly Meeting, I have been distressed and disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

I have found that the Friends who were my friends have been disappointed in my expectations of friendship and love from those who were my friends.

The Committee appointed to name some friends to serve this meeting as coadjutors report that they conferred together and are united in judgment that the same friends be continued approved by the Meeting.

Epistles from Philadelphia and North Carolina Yearly Meetings were acceptably read in this meeting adjourned

At Baltimore monthly meeting of Winter Friends (for the Eastern and Western districts) in unity with the annual Yearly Meetings of Friends, held 5th of 3rd month 1840

Representatives from Baltimore Monthly Meeting present. A report from Indian Spring has been received in consequence of an omission on the part of a friend to whose care it had been confided.

The three usual queries with answers from Baltimore Monthly Meeting have been read, and the following answers directed to be forwarded, to the next Yearly Meeting.