

appeal.

The friends appointed to visit Mary Carpenter report that they paid her a visit and that she showed no desire to be reconciled to friends; they therefore think that further labour would be unnecessary. The same friends are continued to join men friends in preparing a testimony of disavowment against her, and to inform her of her right to appeal.

The friends appointed to prepare a testimony of disavowment against Ann P Robinson not being in readiness to report are continued.

The Friends appointed to visit Margaret Joliffe report that they have had a satisfactory interview with her, and encouraged her to make an acknowledgment to the Meeting. The following offering was made and accepted and left in mens meeting for further consideration. It is as follows.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends

Having had my marriage accomplished contrary to the advice of the Friends of the Baltimore Monthly Meeting, and having been informed that the same was not in accordance with the discipline of the Society, I have been constrained to withdraw from the Society, and to discontinue my attendance at the Baltimore Monthly Meeting. I have been informed that the same was not in accordance with the discipline of the Society, and I have been constrained to withdraw from the Society, and to discontinue my attendance at the Baltimore Monthly Meeting. I have been informed that the same was not in accordance with the discipline of the Society, and I have been constrained to withdraw from the Society, and to discontinue my attendance at the Baltimore Monthly Meeting.

The Committee appointed to name some friends to serve this meeting as excoeris report that they conferred together and are united in judgment that the same friends be continued appointed by the Meeting.

Epistles from Philadelphia and North Carolina Yearly Meetings were acceptably read in this meeting adjourned

At Baltimore monthly meeting of Friends (for the Eastern and Western districts) in unity with the annual Yearly Meetings of Friends, held 3rd of 3rd month 1840

Superintendence from Baltimore Monthly Meeting present. A report from Indian Springs has been received in consequence of an omission on the part of a friend to whom care it had been confided.

The three usual queries with answers from Baltimore Monthly Meeting have been read, and the following answers directed to be forwarded, to the next year's meeting.