

that they were affectionately received by her, and were informed that she was satisfied with the steps she had taken and they believed further labors in her case would be unnecessary. The clerk is directed to furnish that meeting with a copy of this minute meeting concluded

At Baltimore Monthly meeting of women friends for the Eastern & Western districts (in unity with the ancient yearly meetings of friends held - 8th of 4th mo 1842

Representatives present

Representatives to the Quarterly Meeting reported their attendance

The committee in Eliza Early's case reported that they had visited her and were kindly received, but she manifested no disposition to make an acknowledgment to the meeting the same friends were continued to write with men friends in preparing a testimony against her if they should see no cause to forbear

The committee named to make the usual inquiry respecting Elizabeth Richardson reported that they found nothing to prevent her proceeding in marriage with John P. Balderston they were therefore left at liberty to accomplish the same according to discipline the same friends were continued to attend and report its order

The meeting was informed that the minute respecting Mary Jessop had been sent to Frankford M^c. meeting as directed

Cassandra Ann Coad (~~formerly~~ Brevett) has had her marriage accomplished contrary to our order. Parthena Dukehart & Hannah Ann Tyson were appointed to visit her on the occasion and report

meeting adj^d

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of women friends for the Eastern and Western districts (in unity with the ancient yearly meetings of friends) held the 5th of 5th mo 1842

one Representative present

The committee appointed; produced a Testimony of disownment, against Eliza Early, which was read and approved. the same friends were continued to had it to her; and inform her of her right of appeal.

The friends appointed to attend the marriage of John P. Balderston and Elizabeth Richardson informed, that, it was orderly accomplished.

The committee in Cassandra Ann Coad's case reported that they had paid her a very satisfactory visit but were not in readiness to make a full report. Dorothy Hopkins was named to take Hannah Ann Tysons place she having a prospect of being absent from home for some time