

month viz. The committee in Rebecca Stans case report, that they have had several interviews with her that she is desirous of retaining her right of membership and appears in a suitable state of mind to make satisfaction for her outgoing in marriage: for which purpose she has placed in the hands of the committee an offering which is herewith presented for the judgment of the meeting. - The committee further report, that having ascertained from her the fact, that she had previous to her marriage become the mother of an illegitimate child, they were straitened how to proceed with her case, but finding her in a proper frame of mind to condemn her conduct in this particular, they encouraged her so to do, and she has accordingly embraced this circumstance in her offering; all of which is submitted.

"To the Monthly Meeting for the Eastern and Western districts"

Dear friends

Having had my marriage accomplished contrary to the order of society; and having given birth to a child before my marriage, for which I do sincerely regret; and desire that friends may pass it by and continue me a member with them hoping that my future conduct may evince the sincerity of my acknowledgement.

Rebecca Stans

The friends in Ann^e McEans case were continued to report when ready.

The representatives to the Quarterly meeting reported their attendance.
