

The Committee in the case of Deborah Brook Cron have had a full and satisfactory opportunity with her, and believe her application to have been made from a sense of religious duty. The meeting united in the judgment and she was accordingly received into Memberships with Friends. The same Committee was continued to inform her thereof.

A testimony of disunion for Mary Tyson was read, and not being approved, returned to the Committee.

Testimonies of disunion for Susan Jones, and Marietta Hough were read & approved - and the Committee preparing them was continued to hand a copy to each of the individuals and inform them of their right of appeal.

The Committee to visit Mary Catharine Hopkins informed, they had had no opportunity for conversation with her. They were continued.

Thomas C. Hopkins & Hannah E. Russell laid their intentions of marriage with each other before the meeting. Tacey E. King and Margaret Waldron were appointed to make the usual inquiries and report next month.

A Document from the Meeting for sufferings of New England Yearly Meeting, briefly narrating the present state of our Society within the limits of that Yearly Meeting - was received from our Meeting for sufferings with an accompanying Minute and read at this time.
