

They attended to their appointment

The Committee in Elizabeth Proctor's care report that they have had a satisfactory interview with her and produced an acknowledgment, which being acceptable to the Meeting she is continued a member of our religious Society & the same friends are continued to inform her thereof

Dear Friends

My marriage having been accomplished contrary to the order of our religious Society I am free to admit my transgression & regret that the discipline of friends would have been deposited from by said marriage. I hope friends will overlook the offence & continue me a member -

Respectfully

Elizabeth M. Proctor

Baltimore 21st

1848

The joint Committee of men & women friends to consider a proposition of changing the time of holding our Meetings produced the following proposition which is left under consideration another month

To the Monthly Meeting

Dear Friends

The joint committee of men & women friends to consider the subject of a change of the hour for holding our meetings for worship, have had a conference & they generally feel free to propose that the hour of the morning meetings be days be changed to Sabbath until the first of November which we submit to the meeting

Respectfully directed by the Committee

Joseph Shing Jun

June 29 1848

Warwick Talbot

The Committee in Sarah Taggart's care have been prevented attending to the service by the indisposition of one of their members they are continued Meeting again in

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Women Friends for the eastern & western districts held 10th of 8th 1848

Representatives present each having one prevented by indisposition

The friends appointed in Elizabeth Proctor's care report they have attended to the service -

The Committee in Sarah Taggart's care is continued

A communication from the Monthly Meeting of New York has been received requesting this meeting to deal with Jane L. Thomas late Buckley on their behalf on her outgoing in marriage Dorothy Horsfords & Warwick Talbot are appointed to the service

Epistles from ministers in Philadelphia, New