

The friends appointed to attend the marriage of Miles White and Margaret Hopkins report that it was conducted in an orderly manner.

Our esteemed friends George Carter and Cornelius Douglas attended this meeting producing certificates from Springfield Monthly Meeting endorsed by Eastern Quarterly Meeting of Friends. Also expressing of unity with them in their religious concerns. Their company and gospel labors have been acceptable to us.

Our esteemed friend Rebecca N. Douglas also produced an acceptable minute from Springfield Monthly Meeting liberating her to accompany her husband in his religious visit.

The following minute was received from the Quarterly Meeting and Sarah Jarmey, Isaac E. King, Rachel Matthews, Hannah Ann Syron and Hannah Talbot are appointed a committee to unite with new friends in exercising a superintending care over the meeting at Indian Spring as ability may be afforded.

"At Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends held 3rd mo 19th 1849.

The following minute was received from Baltimore Monthly Meeting, with a slight alteration approved and directed to be forwarded to that Monthly Meeting.

The joint committee of men & women Friends appointed several years since to visit Indian Spring Meeting and have a superintending care over it reported that they are united in the conclusion that owing to the reduced number of those who compose that meeting that the present meeting for worship be laid down and that liberty be granted the members of it to hold an indulged meeting for worship. Under this arrangement the indulged meeting for worship to be regularly held on 1st day mornings at the meeting house and on 4th days at the dwelling house of Esther Hopkins.

Thomas J. King Clerk

Hannah Ann Syron (Clerk for the day)

The meeting concluded

E. J. King Clerk

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Women Friends for the Eastern & Western Districts, held 10th of 5th mo 1849.

Two Representatives present.

The committee in Anna Green's case reported, that they had several opportunities with her, and were united in believing her sincere in her request, and were willing that it should be granted, with which the meeting united, and continued the same friends to inform her thereof.

The friends in Harriet Bryant's case reported, that they had attended to their appointment, and were willing her request to be received into membership should be complied with, which was united with by the meeting, and continued the same committee to inform her thereof.

The subject of changing the hour of holding our meetings was brought in by men friends, with information, that they had appointed a committee to take it under consideration. Dorothy Hopkins,