At Baltimore, a meeting of the Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held Nov 10th 1830.

Representatives present were one who was prevented from attending by indisposition.

The committee appointed to prepare a testimony of disavowal against Hannah Wilson produced the following which was read, approved and directed to be signed, and the same Friends are continued to forward her a copy thereof, and inform her of her right of appeal. Hannah Wilson late Williams has so far departed from the principles of our profession as to associate herself with those who have separated from communion with the Society of Friends she has neglected the attendance of our aligning meetings & in connection with meetings not acknowledged by us & by meeting but identifying herself with the society and witnessing with both her principles that had her marriage accomplished among them she has been treated with and satisfied in ^{her situation} to acknowledge her deviation & therefore her former membership withdrawn. Signed by direction & on behalf of Baltimore Yearly Meeting held Nov 10 1830. Francis L. King Clerk.

The committee in the case of Elizabeth Weaver inform that they are not so ready to report. They are continued.

The friends appointed to visit Anna Kreis on account of her deviation in marriage not being prepared to report are continued.

The committee in the case of Sarah Appold inform that they have been prevented by indisposition from attending to their appointment. They are continued.

The Friends named to prepare a certificate of removal for Elizabeth B. Hopkins produced one which was read, approved and directed to be signed.

The Representatives to the Quarterly Meeting report that they all attended except one who was prevented by indisposition on her family.

Baltimore Preparative Meeting inform that Elanora Mackenzie formerly Russell has had her marriage accomplished contrary to the order of our discipline. Clara Russell and Dorothy Hopkins are named to visit her on account thereof, and report.

Sarah Ann Lyson and Hannah Anne Lyson are appointed to consider of and prepare the names of the Friends to serve the meeting as clerks during the ensuing year.
