

The minutes of our last Yearly Meeting have been read to our satisfaction and edification.

The meeting concludes

Est. King Clark

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Women Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held 33rd 1850

Our Representatives present all being present & from attendance by indisposition.

The 1st & 2nd of January with the evening thanks from the Preparative Meetings have been read at this time and the following minutes adopted & to be forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting to attend which as our Representatives we appoint Sarah Holmstedt, Mrs. A. Little Margaret Thompson & Hannah Culbert.

1st Order All our meetings have been attended and on 1st day mornings by the greater part of our members. We believe that a more diligent attendance of 1st day afternoon meetings and third and in the middle of the week as well as meetings for discipline would be profitable to some. Unbecoming behavior strictly avoided and the time of assembling nearly observed.

2nd Order Young Friends are exhorted to manifest love towards each other becoming our Christian profession and to discourage idleness and distraction. Where disappointed suitors, pains is taken to soothe them.

3rd Order Friends endeavor to deal truthfully & judiciously and impartially and to advise to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before they are denounced.

The friends named to visit Elizabeth Brainer inform that on consequence of indisposition they have not been able to attend to their appointment. They are continued.

The committee in the case of Sarah Nipold report that she has expressed much attachment to the Society and regret at leaving it but that under present circumstances she has no prospect of being a consistent member. They believe further labor for her can well not be availing with child restriction. The meeting adjourns and the same committee is continued to visit with some friends in preparing a testimony of disavowal against her if they see occasion to publish and publish next month.

The friends appointed to inform Friends living out of town that they are retained as members of this meeting report the same performed. Elizabeth. The committee to propose three friends to fill the station of Clergy, inform that they have conferred together and have concluded to propose the appointment of Elizabeth Holmstedt, Hannah Ann Lyon & Mary and Margaret Cheston with advice the meeting adjourns and they are accordingly appointed to that office.

4th Order The Friends have requested that her two more children Shipton and Elizabeth Shipton also be named into membership with Mary Ann & Matthew & John C. King are appointed
