6th mo 1850.

All the Representatives present except one, who was prevented by indisposition.

The 3 usual queries with their answers from Queries the Preparative Meetings were read, and the following answers adopted and directed to be forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting, to attend which we appoint Margaret Weston, Ann S. Matthews, Lucy E. King, Sarah Janney, and Rachel Brooks, as our Representatives.

The friends named to prepare a certificate for Sydia Williams, to the Philadelphia Monthly Meeting for the middle district, produced one, which was read, approved, and directed to be signed.

Our friend Clarissa Fowell laid a concern before this Meeting which had for some time past rested on her mind, of visiting the families composing this Monthly Meeting, and also those who attend the meeting not in membership with us, which claiming the consideration of the meeting, was united with, and she left at liberty to pursue her prospect as Truth may open the way.

The request of Cassandra A. Coale, for the admission of her two minor children into membership with friends, being considered, was united with, and the same friends continued to inform her of the judgment of ^{the} meeting.

The committee in Ruth Ann Gorsuch's case are continued.
