

and apparel; also to guard them against reading pernicious books and stand the corrupt conversation of the world, but greater faithfulness in the support of these important testimonies is much needed amongst us. The frequent reading of the Holy Scriptures is encouraged by most friends.

5th

Our testimony against spirituous liquors appears to be maintained. Frequenting taverns or attending places of diversion discouraged. Moderation and temperance generally observed.

6th

The necessities of the poor are inspected and relieved. We have none among us requiring assistance in their employment and no children to educate.

6th

Most Friends maintain a faithful testimony against a heinous ministry. Clear of oaths, military service, clandestine trade, false goods and lotteries.

7th

Friends appear to be careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage; just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements.

8th

We believe Friends are careful to bear a testimony against Slavery. Those of the African race under Friends care appear to be suitably provided for and receive some instruction in useful learning.

9th

Endeavors are used to deal with offenders reasonably and impartially, and to advise to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned.

10th

None.

11th

None.

12th

We believe Friends are generally careful, as far as practicable to place their children for tuition under the charge of suitable teachers in membership with us.
