Report.

The Committee appointed by the Monthly Meeting to visit our young members as way might open, report; That we had several sittings of the Com^e in which we endeavoured to feel after the service which might be required of us - Way did not appear to open for any labour on the part of women's Com^e, but our men friends were encouraged to proceed with any service which might present.

We had two meetings for the young men belonging to and attending our meeting, and there were from 30 to 40 present each time - Way opened for service with them and the meetings were held to comfort and satisfaction. Signed by,

Richard M. Janney, Amos I. Matthews, &
John Scott, Hannah Ann Lyson.
