Baltimore, 1st mo 7, 1853,

To Baltimore Monthly meeting for the Eastern & Western districts,

Dear friends,

The joint Committee appointed to visit certain of our members as way might open for it, report, that they have paid twenty visits to the houses of members or attenders of our meetings.

These visits were occasions of interest to the Committee & were attended with much religious exercise. It was felt to be a privilege thing to mingle in feeling and sympathy - and we believe such visits when
