The Committee to visit Sandy Spring were continued.

Our beloved friend Deborah C Thomas informed this meeting, that she felt it laid upon her to visit in the love of the Gospel, the approaching Yearly Meetings of Philadelphia, New York, and New England, and some meetings composing them. The Mee considered the subject and expressed full unity and sympathy with her, and the assurance that ~~He~~ who ~~will~~ put forth His own sheep and goats before them, will be with her. The clerk was directed to write with the clerk of mens meeting in signing a minute liberating her for the service.

Caroline C Talbot of Ohio, and Mary C Beck of London Yearly Mee. have been very acceptably with us.

The School Committee laid before the Meeting a proposition with regard to giving the School into the charge of Professor Tuttle, which was ^{united} with by the Mee.
