Western Districts held 6 May 1885

The friends appointed to inform Anna B Chandler of her reception into membership with us reported they had done so. The friends named to inform Florence Kirchenbauer of her reception into membership not being present - The overseers were requested to see that she was informed. The friends named to collect for the Monthly Meeting reported that they had collected the sum of $103.50 The following report was received from the joint committee of men & women friends appointed to visit Ashlon Meeting in regard to establishing a meeting for discipline there.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting
Dear Friends.

The committee appointed last month to visit friends of Ashlon Meeting report that some of the committee had a full & free conference with friends of that meeting in the meeting house at Ashlon on 7th day 5th mo 23rd at 3 p.m. About 20 of the members were present. They were with one exception, united in thinking that the establishment of a Monthly Meeting at Ashlon would be of advantage to themselves, & to the meeting, provided it could be organized & held with credit.

After seriously considering the matter, the committee came
