The following report from the Committee on Religious Meetings in South Baltimore was read & accepted.

To Balt. Monthly Meeting of Friends.

The committee has given some attention to the object of its appointment, but are unable to report much in the way of united action.

It has been thought advisable for the different members of the committee to visit the meetings on Federal Hill as opportunity offered, & most of them have done so occasionally and a few of our members have attended very frequently. These visits have afforded us satisfaction & have been favorably received by the members of the meeting. We believe there exists a good degree
