Answers to the Queries-

1st Ans. All our meetings for worship & discipline have been held, & have generally been well attended, except on First-day evenings, which are often small.
More punctuality - desirable on the part of some.

2d Ans. As far as appears, friends maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession. We believe that late-hearing & detraction are discouraged. We know of no differences amongst us.

10th Ans. When necessary case is taken to deal with offenders seasonably & in the spirit of meekness & love.

At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Women Friends for the Eastern and Western Districts held 7th Mo 8th 1886.

The committee appointed to inform Sarah B. Wands that she had been received into membership, reported that they had attended to that service. A communication was received from the Quarterly Meeting of Ministry and Oversight, uniting with the appointment of Jane E. White as Elder, and of Ammi D. Stabler as a Minister.
The representatives to the Quarterly Meeting reported that they all attended.

The committee named to correspond with Rebecca J. Brown on account of her request for membership produced the following report - which was accepted by this meeting.
To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Women Friends -

Dear Friends -

We have corresponded with Rebecca J. Brown, and are united in recommending that she should be received into membership with us - On behalf
