The Committee appointed to consider the subject of adjourning this meeting from Fifth-day morning to Fourth-day evening, made the following report, which was united with.

To Baltimore Mo. Meeting of Friends.

Dear friends:

The committee to consider the proposition to hold the business sessions of the Monthly Meeting at such an hour as will induce the largest attendance, report that they have carefully considered the subject, and recommend that the Monthly Meeting assemble in joint session at the usual time, and then adjourn to the following Fourth-day evening at 8 o'clock, and that this arrangement be continued during Third, Fourth, and Fifth months, unless otherwise determined by the Monthly Meeting.

On behalf of the Committee
John C. Thomas.
Julia Valentine.
