

Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends
held 7th. mo. 4th. 1889.

James Carey Jr. clerks.
Katharine M. Brewitt.

Our dear friend, Caroline O'Harrow, a member of Ipswich Monthly Meeting, New York, has been in attendance on our meetings during the last winter, with a minute from that Meeting, as companion to her mother, Elizabeth L. Comstock.

Her company has been very acceptable to us.
Signed by direction and on behalf of Baltimore Monthly Meeting held 7th mo.
4th. 1889.

James Carey Jr. Clerks.
Katharine M. Brewitt.

The representatives to the Quarterly Meeting
all attended, except two, for whose absence reasons were assigned.

The clerk informed the meeting that a minute expressing the judgment of the Meeting relative to recognizing the gift in the ministry of our dear Friend John C.
Thomas had been signed and forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting on Ministry and Oversight.

The following friends were appointed to bring forward the names of four friends to serve as Overseers the ensuing three years, Mary M. Cullough, Rachel Brooks, Julia Valentine, Clarissa Davis, Margaret H. White.
The first unanswered query was read, and seriously considered.

Men friends informed this Meeting, that their attention had been drawn to the irregular manner in which applicants for membership are informed of their acceptance, and suggested, that hereafter, when a person is accepted into membership with Friends, that a written notification of such acceptance, signed by the clerk, be given to the Committee, and by them delivered to the person being received into membership - This Meeting concurred in their judgment.

Then adjourned.

Katharine M. Brewitt.
Clerk.
