At Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends, Women, for the Eastern and Western Districts, held by adjournment 2nd mo. 12th. 1890. The committee appointed to visit or correspond with Ann Weirman, Matilda Harris, and Jennie M. Harris on account of their request for membership, reported, they had had very satisfactory interviews with them, and were united in recommending that their application be accepted, which was approved. The same committee was continued to inform them of their reception into membership with us.

The committee appointed to take the whole subject of the Meeting House library under consideration with reference to adding to it by donation or otherwise such books as might seem desirable, made the following report, which was accepted: the same committee was continued, and authorized to procure, if necessary, another book case.
