

5 mo. service assigned to them.

1892

Six Conferences were held, in which the following subjects were presented, and treated in a very interesting and satisfactory manner by the Friends named:

1st The Organization of the Society of Friends and its advantages.

By Dr. James Carey Thomas and Francis F. Allinson.

2nd The Headship of Christ in the Church, the call and qualification for service, and the mutual dependence of members upon one another.

By Prof. Allen C. Thomas of Haverford College.

3rd Worship and Ministry

By Dr. Richard H. Thomas and Augusta L. Watkins.

4th Baptism and the Supper.

By Dr. Richard H. Thomas.

5th Immediate Revelation in the hearts of men; the guidance of the Holy Spirit, with special reference to private life.

By Dr. James Carey Thomas.

6th The Friend in social and public life -

5 mo. - attitude towards Peace, Oaths &c.

1892.

By Dr. James C. Rhoades of Bryn Mawr College.

The Conferences were duly advertised, and we had an encouraging attendance of those not in membership with us.

The Conferences were acknowledged to be both interesting and profitable by those who were present at them.
