

5 mo.
1892

attendance at all of the meetings was affected by sickness among the members. but since the first of the year, the size of the meetings has been about the same as in previous years.

The Fifth-day morning meeting and the After-meeting on First-day have been especially live and helpful, and we believe the interest in the First-day evening meeting has increased.

Some attention has been given to visiting our members, and letters have been written to some living at a distance; these expressions of our continued interest in their welfare seem to have been appreciated by those receiving them.

Federal Hill.

The meetings at the beginning of winter were rather small, owing mostly to sickness, also to members moving away.

A series of meetings was held in 3rd month, attended by Delia Fister and Minnie Bassett of Ohio, and for one week afterward by 5 mo.

1892. members of this Committee, with very good results, the attendance has increased, the spiritual life of the members seems to be revived, and several applications for membership with the Mission Meeting have been received.

Laurel.

No regular report has been received from this meeting, but we understand meetings were held at the house of a friend until sickness prevented.

Washington Meeting.

Meetings are still held First-day mornings in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A., rented for the purpose. The attendance has increased, and the interest is greater than ever before.

The meeting was visited by Frances Jenkins, Timothy Hussey and wife in 11th. mo. Levi Gregory in 12th. mo. and Barnabas C. Hobbs in 1st. mo. Parlor meetings were held at the time of the visit of some of these friends. Two of the members