

10 mo. 1892 The following minute from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting was read.

To Baltimore Monthly Meeting of Friends.

Liberty to suspend 1st day evening meetings. The request of Baltimore Monthly Meeting for the privilege of suspending the regular meeting for worship held at Baltimore on first day evenings, was carefully considered, and Baltimore Monthly Meeting was left at liberty to so suspend the first day evening meetings, when in its judgment it shall be desirable to do so.

Taken from the minutes of Baltimore Quarterly Meeting of Friends, held at Hopewell, Va. 9th month. 12th. 1892.

John Nicholson, clerk for the day.
Louisa T. Brooke. clerk.

Ella M. Schriver received. The committee appointed to confer with Ella M. Schriver on account of her request for membership, informed the meeting, that they had had a satisfactory correspondence with her, and recommended that her request be accepted. The meeting united with the judgment of the committee, and the clerk was directed to inform her that she had
