of a Preparative Meeting, the committee decided upon a paper, setting forth what in its view, the duties and privileges of such a meeting would be, and directed a copy to be furnished to the particular meetings. This was accordingly sent to Bendersville and Washington.

The committee decided to refer the matter to the meetings concerned, for them to take such action as they saw fit.

Since the meeting of the committee, the chairman has been advised that Friends in Washington and Bendersville are holding the matter under advisement. Bendersville Friends write, that they will come to a conclusion in the course of a month.

on behalf of the Committee,
R. H. Thomas,
