hold some meetings there as the way might open for them. After serious consideration this meeting fully united with the concern of our Friend, and he was set at liberty, and encouraged to proceed therein, as the Lord might direct. Our clerks were directed to furnish him with a minute expressive thereof, signed on our behalf, he being a minister in unity and good esteem amongst us.

received.

The meeting then went into separate session. The committee to visit Louisa Stewart, on account of her request for membership with Friends, reported, they had a very satisfactory interview with her, and recommended that her application be accepted. The meeting united with the judgment of the committee, and men Friends, concurring, our clerks were directed to inform her of the decision of the meeting.
